Ayudha Puja sales dull

- Final rehearsal of Jumboo Savari held
- Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai to perform Nandi Dhwaja Puja between 4.36 pm and 4.46 pm on Oct. 15
- Vijayadashami procession to commence between 5 pm and 5.30 pm
- Vehicular movement around Palace banned on Friday from 7 am to 6 pm

Mysuru, Oct. 13 (PM&AK)- While the sales of vehicles, jewellery and garments have picked up, unfortunately the same cannot be said about essential Ayudha Puja items such as ash gourds (winter melon), Chrysanthemum flowers and fruits during this festive season.

Many vendors selling puja essentials expressed disappointment with the dipped sales.

"Sales are dull this year due to the situation caused by COVID. We procured only limited stocks for sales this year. However, we are unsure if even that will sell," rued Devaraju, a vendor who has set up a make-shift tent at Vani Vilasa Market.

Every year, around this time, all the markets in the city including Devaraja Market and road side Flower Markets would be abuzz with scores of customers thronging to buy puja items. But this year, the usual sight of customers thronging street vendors on the eve of Ayudha Puja was not witnessed. "During every Ayudha Puja season, I used to sell over 20 boxes of apples by afternoon. But this time, I have managed to sell only four. I opened the shop at 7 am and it is now 12.30 pm. I doubt if it will pick up," said another vendor.

One of the factors for poor sales is said to be people celebrating a simple Dasara due to increase in prices of vegetables, fruits and other puja essentials. However, vendors say that prices have only marginally increased when compared to the previous years.

90 children undergo Covaxin trials at Cheluvamba Hospital in Mysuru

The Child Rehabilitation Centre at Cheluvamba Hospital in Mysuru which has been converted into a Vaccination Trial Centre for children. (File photo)

Mysuru, Oct. 13 (RK&BCT)- Mysuru has contributed in its own way for the clinical trials of Covaxin that has been approved for children aged 2-18 years by the Subject Expert Committee (SEC) yesterday. Over 90 children underwent the trials at Cheluvamba Hospital in city.

Dr. C.P. Nanjaraj

The Hospital was selected by the Institutional Ethics Committee for Covaxin's clinical trials in children aged 2 to 18 years. Cheluvamba Hospital is a reputed State-run Hospital for women and children under the Mysore Medical College and Research Institute (MMC&RI).

Children were part of the trial in three age groups — 2 to 6, 6 to 12 and 12 to 18 — where safety, reactogenicity and immunogenicity of the vaccine in children were assessed, MMC&RI Dean and Director Dr. C.P. Nanjaraj told Star of Mysore this morning.

The MMC&RI had formed a dedicated team to conduct the trials on children. "A team of doctors and paediatricians were closely monitoring the children through regular telephonic conversation with their parents. No complications were reported," he said.

The children were continuously monitored for any signs of fever, fatigue and exhaustion. "All the parameters in the SOP were followed stringently. The children received the second dose after 28 days where their blood samples were checked to see if antibodies have developed against COVID-19," Dr. Nanjaraj added.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

While much attention has rightfully been on what India's students have been missing out over the pandemic year, and what this has done to the learning outcomes that were worrying to begin with, a new UNESCO report looks at the problem from the other end: What is the state of teachers who are expected to help improve the state of our children? Teachers are involved in several non-teaching activities too such as coordinating midday meals, registering children for Aadhaar, election duty and vaccination drives.

Basically quality matters. The country is now awash in educated youths looking for good jobs. To take the last two decades' gains in enrolment and learning to the next level, India now needs to incentivise smart young people to take up the teaching profession and train them well. Upskilling is critical for the existing workforce as well. For example, 66 percent of them report opening hyperlinks with difficulty and a lot of help, or never. Regular and effective support for these teachers is a necessary condition for them to provide the same to students. — In The Times of India

A delicacy that's hard to swallow

Taipei City: Taiwanese food is very popular all over the world, but some of the dishes it proposes are hard to swallow even for natives. Take for example milkfish intestines, a delicacy that's difficult to look at, let alone swallow.

Milkfish is farmed on a large scale in Taiwan, not only for its meat but also for its intestines, which are apparently the base of several dishes, including black fried intestines and milkfish intestine soup. Both are reportedly delicious, but you first have to get over the fact that they look like cooked worms, and even then, the idea of eating fish guts doesn't appeal to everyone. Southern Taiwan, which hosts the most milkfish farms, is reportedly more familiar with milkfish intestine dishes which have become somewhat of a local challenge for visitors.

The "Magic" rock that bends when cut into strips

Minas Gerais: Flexibility is not at all associated with rocks, but there is one notable exception to the rule – itacolumite, a porous sandstone that becomes flexible when cut into thin strips.

Itacolumite is named after the place where it was originally discovered, the Pico do Itacolomi rock formation in Minas Gerais, Brazil, but it can also be found in other places around the world, such as Georgia and North Carolina in the US, and Kaliana village in India. This rock is commonly used as a construction stone; because of its good partition, it can be shaped into plates about 1 cm thick and up to 20 cm long that are then used mostly as a floor or wall revetment. However, when cut into thin strips of only a few centimeters, it displays extreme flexibility that has fascinated geologists for decades.

Free COVID vaccination at Bharath Cancer Hospital

Mysuru, Oct. 13 - HCG Bharath Hospital and Institute of Oncology (HCG BHIO) will be providing free COVID-19 vaccination at its premises on Hebbal Ring Road here till Oct. 31.

Talking about the initiative, Dr. M.S. Vishveshwara, Chief Radiation Oncologist and Medical Superintendent, HCG BHIO, said "Vaccination is the cheapest and most effective way to protect the country against COVID-19. A poor family finds it difficult to get everyone vaccinated in a private hospital and waiting their turn might endanger their health and livelihoods. Keeping this in mind, we have decided to provide free vaccine to all those above 18 years of age at our Hospital." For further details contact Mob: 99454-33300, according to a press release.

As demand soars for domestic flights, Govt. lifts capacity curbs

New Delhi, Oct. 13 (Agencies)- In a move that is likely to bring relief to passengers this festive season, the Government yesterday allowed airlines to operate 100 percent from Oct. 18.

This is for the first time the Government has lifted the cap on the number of flights airlines can operate since the resumption of domestic flights on May 25, 2020. Over the past 18 months, the Government has been regulating the number of flights airlines can operate in tandem with passenger demand by imposing a cap of 30 percent to 85 percent.

At present, airlines are allowed to operate 85 percent of the pre-COVID flight schedule approved by the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA).

"After review of the current status of scheduled domestic operations, it has been decided to restore the scheduled domestic air operations with effect from Oct. 18, 2021 without any capacity restriction," an order from the Ministry of Civil Aviation read.

Last weekend saw massive crowds at New Delhi and Mumbai. This compelled both airports to announce reopening of passenger terminal buildings which had remained shut.

On Oct. 10, domestic passenger numbers clocked at 3.04 lakh, crossing the 3 lakh per day mark for the first time since Feb. 28 this year, when 3.14 lakh passengers had travelled on domestic flights.

Industry executives have pointed out that the capacity restrictions were well past serving their purpose and this comes as a positive for the industry ahead of the festival season.

A cap on capacity amid rising demand led to airfares skyrocketing.

A Delhi-Bengaluru flight booked in the next three weeks will cost Rs. 12,900 to Rs. 14,900; Delhi-Patna flight booked in the next three weeks will cost Rs. 9,600 to Rs. 10,300 and a Chennai-Delhi flight booked in the same period will cost Rs. 13,700 to Rs. 14,700.

Airfares will come down after Deepavali festival on Nov. 4.

Final rehearsal of Jumboo Savari held

Mysuru, Oct. 13 (MTY&DM)- With Jumboo Savari just two days away, the third and final round of rehearsal of the grand event was held inside the Mysore Palace this morning.

The Dasara procession, just like last year, is restricted to Palace premises in the wake of COVID pandemic.

City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta and DCF Dr. V. Karikalan performed Pushparchane to Howdah elephant Abhimanyu to launch the final rehearsal this morning. The designated Police fired 21 rounds in the air and the Police Band played the National Anthem.

At first, Abhimanyu was brought from Kodi Someshwara temple inside the Palace to the Palace precincts, from where Abhimanyu, along with his two Kumki elephants were taken to the spot where the Howdah (Ambari) was mounted atop Abhimanyu for final practice.

Thereafter the elephants were brought in front of the royal residence from where they were taken on the entire stretch of the Dasara procession route inside the Palace premises along with Mounted Police, Police Band and a Police contingent.

Speaking to presspersons, Dr. Chandragupta said that the final rehearsal this morning and two in the previous days were successful.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai will inaugurate the Dasara procession by performing Nandi Dhwaja puja at the Balarama Gate of the Palace in the auspicious Meena Lagna between 4.36 pm and 4.46 pm on Oct.15, he said adding that the Vijayadashami procession will be launched in the auspicious Meena Lagna between 5 pm and 5.30 pm in the presence of Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, District Minister S.T. Somashekar, Mayor Sunanda Palanetra and a host of other dignitaries.

Security measures

Noting that 8 cultural troupes, 6 tableaux, Mounted Police and two Police contingents will be part of the procession, he appealed the citizens to watch the procession from their homes as it will be telecast live.

Two roads lit up for midnight photo shoot
Documentary-cum-drone shoot had special permission from Energy Minister

Mysuru, Oct. 13 (RK&BCT)- At a time when the resplendent illumination of Mysuru is switched off at 10 pm daily, serial lights fully glowed on Sayyaji Rao Road and D. Devaraj Urs Road in the wee hours of today (between 1 am and 2 am) and a drone shooting was held by a private team. The team had come specially from Bengaluru in a couple of vehicles.

But the secret shooting caught the public attention this morning when the photos and videos of the scenes went viral on social media. The videos and photos showed a sort of a photo shoot involving the family members or friends of a high-ranking officer or a political leader and questions were raised.

Netizens questioned the unearthly-hour illumination as to who gave the permission to switch on the lights in the wee hours. In the video, visuals of flower vendors coming to Mysuru from various villages to sell flowers on Sayyaji Rao Road are clearly seen. Normally, these vendors come to the city after 2 am so that they can sell fresh flowers for Ayudha Puja (Oct. 14).

Shooting with a drone requires special permission and as the videos and photos went viral, the Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) issued a clarification that the photo shoot was ordered by none other than Energy Minister V. Sunil Kumar to 'capture the beauty of Mysuru' in a documentary.

Clarifying this, CESC Executive Engineer Nagesh said that the photo shoot was held beyond midnight as the streets are deserted. "We are seeing unusual rush on city roads from 6.30 pm till 10 pm and beyond and as such, a documentary cannot be shot. We chose the wee hours for this reason," he clarified.

When asked about usage of drone, Nagesh said the City Police Commissioner had permitted the use of drones. "We have all permissions in place and there was no violation," he added.

Vishwas, a flower vendor at J.K. Grounds said, "There is no demand for flowers this year. Flowers like chrysanthemum is being sold for Rs. 70-80 per meter, roses Rs. 200-250 per kilo, jasmine Rs. 700-800 per kilo, Tulsi Rs. 30 per meter, coconuts up to Rs. 40, marigold Rs. 80 per meter and ash gourd at Rs. 40-50. Since yesterday we saw only 30 percent of business, I hope it gets better by the evening."

Gowramma, another vendor from Devaraja Market said that people are going through a financial crisis after two lockdowns. This has affected the business of street vendors.

Manju, a vendor at J.K. Grounds said, "People ask everything for less rates which we cannot offer. We are selling banana stems and ash gourds at affordable prices. We have sold only two tonnes of ash gourds since yesterday out of ten tonnes we have brought here," he added.

Venkata Shetty, a vendor from Devaraja Market said, "Have been selling flowers for 20 years and have not experienced anything like this before. Other flower vendors in the market are selling chrysanthemum for Rs. 100 per meter. But I am selling for Rs. 60 per meter and yet I see no improvement in the business. We cannot blame people for this as they do not have money due to the lockdown effect", he added.

Papanna from Devaraja Market said, "We see more demand for ash gourds during the festival. Price of each ash gourd is more on roadside markets. We are selling it for Rs. 15-20. Still there are not many buyers."

500-year-old Batheri in dark for Dasara

While celebrating history, officers ignored a slice of history, allege Srirangapatna residents

Srirangapatna, Oct. 13 (Vinay Karekura&BCT)- While the entire Srirangapatna soaked in lights, cultural programmes, processions and decorations for Dasara, a celebration that is steeped in history, the Batheri remained in the dark as no one even cared to illuminate this structure that has deep roots in history.

For the record, in the previous years, the Batheri was the centre of attraction as all cultural programmes were held here attracting crowds. The entire place is usually illuminated to reflect the yesteryear grandeur and visitors were pulled by its attraction. This year, however, not even a single light was lit here.

Residents, upset with the attitude of officers of the Taluk, said it was unfortunate that the administration ignored the place. "Rajas, Maharajas and Sultans have proudly protected this historical monument where they were hoisting flags from this flagpole in Batheri. The place is in shambles now," they said, taking umbrage at the official neglect.

This place classified as a heritage structure is very close to the Delhi Gate near the Srirangapatna Fort. This Batheri was built during the reign of Vijayanagar rulers in the 15th Century, when Proudadevaraya (Second Devaraya) was ruling the kingdom. This structure was built to hoist the flag with the Varaha symbol.

After Wadiyars took over the rule, their symbol was Gandaberunda and the flag bearing this symbol was being hoisted here. Later, during the rule of Hyder Ali and Tipu Sultan, the flag with the Sun symbol was being hoisted from the same structure.

This is a place exclusively to hoist the flag with a solid iron pole, a flight of steep steps and a wooden platform held by strong wires. Batheri is built in the form of a square and it is over 100 feet above the ground. In front, an idol of Veeranjaneya is placed. If one stands on the Batheri, one can have a panoramic view of Srirangapatna.

Lakhs of rupees have been spent by the Taluk and District Administrations this time for illumination and all the Government buildings and landmarks have been brightly lit up. But the authorities preferred to ignore the history by not illuminating the Batheri, alleged the residents.
